Hon. Frank Staplin, of Taos county, moved to smend the bill and reduced some of the salaries. The house went into the committee of the whole in the matter, Speaker Luna resigning the chair o Hou. V. Jaramillo. The feature of the debate which followed was an slowest speech by Hon. Man Luns, which had for its object the checking of reductions in salaries. Mr Luna delved into the history of the 32d lugislative assembly and gave some inside facts as to the salary bill and Batemun law. He pronounced the salary bill a drastic piece of legisation which was neither Republican nor Democratic-it was Populistic. Public officers smould not be asked to served for nothing, for it required men of ability to manage county affairs and they could not afford to nagical their business pursuits for the public weal unless granted proper compensation.
